Art on a Lake: How to Lure Locals to Contemporary Art

"Art on Lake" displays contemporary art from the European Union installed on the surface of City Park Lake in Budapest. Organized by the nearby Museum of Fine Arts, the exhibit is intended as an instrument for introducing an uninformed public to the pleasures of contemporary art...

"The largest and most prominent installation is by Mimmo Roselli, an Italian who extends ropes from points of the Vajdahunyad Castle to the surface of the lake (see images above). His colossal drawing in space links the outlines of the architecture to the water plane, a spatial delineation that calls to mind work by Fred Sandback, Waltercio Caldas and others" ...
